

Henley Classic Elite Race - 25th June 2017

The 2017 Henley Classic will feature an elite category for men and women. Swimmers are competing for the historic Inman and Ovey cups. The prize money will be competed for at the Henley Mile taking place on the 9th July 2017.

Entry Process

If you would like to swim in this category please submit your times based on the criteria set out below, to enquiries@henleyswim.com We will then assess if you qualify for one of the following:

- a) You qualify for the elite class with a free entry
- b) You qualify for the elite class with a paid entry
- c) You do not qualify for the elite race

Elite Athletes Entry Criteria

Athletes hoping for an entry in the Elite category should meet one or more of the below criteria:-

- Athletes who have competed in FINA Openwater World Cup 10km or FINA Open Water Grand Prix during 2013-2016 seasons
- Athletes who have competed in FINA Openwater World Championships at 5km, 10km or 25km since 2012
- Athletes who have competed in FINA Pool World Championships since 2012
- Men under 18:00mins for 1,500m achieved since 2014
- Women under 10:30min for 800m achieved since 2014
- Member of a British Swimming Squad 2015/2016
- Also considered will be members of home nations swimming Senior Squads 2015/2016 (i.e. Scotland, England and Wales)
- Triathletes who have competed in an ITU world triathlon series event
- Triathletes who have competed in Elite GB national series event. This must be submitted with an 800/1500 pool time.